VERY IMPORTANT.

It is very important that women should avoid constipation. It predisposes and aggravates every symptom of female weakness. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills cure Constipation by strengthening the nerves and muscles of the stomach which digest the food.
The result is a gentle, natural movement of the bowels. For children they have no equal. At druggists.

CAPT. GODFREY DIED YESTERDAY

NEWS OF DEATH OF ONE OF THE INCORPORATORS OF THE INTER-ISLAND COMPANY.

News of the death of one of the men who had been most influential in building up the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, was received by cable yesterday. Captain W. B. Godfrey one of the incorporators of the company died in San Francisco after an illness of considerable duration. He was 63 years of age at the time of his death. James L. McLean vice president of the Inter-Island Company and a brother-in-law of the deceased, was advised of the death of Captain Godfrey.

William B. Godfrey was born at Glasgow, Nova Scotia, December 16, 1828, and like many of his countrymen took to the sea for a vocation. He was married at San Francisco, Cal., June 13, 1857, to Carrie E. McLean, daughter of the late George C. McLean.
Captain Godfrey came to Honolulu to reside permanently in 1878. He entered the employ of T. R. Foster & Co., founders of the I. I. S. N. Co., the same year. The first steamer for the company, the James Makea, was brought by him to Honolulu in 1879.

Captain Godfrey was one of the incorporators of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., in 1883 and was elected its first vice president. Upon the death of the late Thomas R. Foster in 1888, he was elected president of the Inter-Island Company, holding that position until he retired in 1899.

He left the Hawaiian Islands on February 20, 1900, and has resided in San Francisco ever since. Besides his wife, Captain Godfrey leaves two sons, W. B. Godfrey Jr., and George C. Godfrey, and four daughters, Mrs. Frank B. Drake, Ruth E. Godfrey, Cora F.
Godfrey and Sophia A. Godfrey, also sisters in the Eastern States. Captain W. K. Freeman of the steamer Kinahou is a nephew of the deceased.

At the time of his death Captain Godfrey was an officer and director of the Boole Shipbuilding Co. of Oakland, Cal., and was largely interested in the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., and the C. J. Hendry Co. of San Francisco.

SHOT IN THE ARMS OF A WOMAN

TRAGIC END OF FRED REYMON, ENTRAPPED BY A HAWAIIAN DELILAH.

WAILUKU, January 19.—Last Friday it was reported that Fred Reymon had committed suicide in Kanali near Uluapalua. As it was known that criminal relations existed between Reymon and a woman there many refused to accept the suicide theory and the sheriff ordered an inquest to be held.

A coroner's jury was empanelled and took two days in the examination of witnesses with the result that a confession who made by one of the parties and two placed under arrest.

Deputy Sheriff Edgar Morton conducted the inquest and much credit is due him for bringing out the facts in the case.

Mary Ann Kaipalaoa stated to the jury that she and George Kaonohi Auekalan were in a room together when Fred Reymon came home. They were asleep at the time. Reymon was angry at finding Auekalan and went to get an ax. As he came in the woman threw her arms around him while Auekalan shot him.

The jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death at the hands of George Kaonohi Auekalan and Mary Ann Kaipalaoa.

The woman was placed under arrest at once and the Deputy Sheriff of Hana was telephoned to have Auekalan placed under arrest at once which was done and they were both brought to Wailuku where their preliminary hearing will be held.

Reymon was a cowboy and half Spaniard.
